

As a Christian business owner, church leader or marketplace king, the last thing the devil wants is for you to succeed, particularly if you understand the call and purpose of Gods destiny in you. If God has called you and anointed you to acquire wealth you can be a conduit of blessing to your local church and the kingdom of God, when normal people go to work, kings go to war. Market related kings often encounter the most difficult hindrances and attacks, all designed to stop them from prospering and gaining ground or to slow them down and frustrate them. Challenges are designed to intimidate them and cause them to slip into fear mould, thus stifling the desire to succeed in the market place. Kings know what its like to embrace the taste of warfare, and therefore they must have the passion and understanding of their purpose at the forefront of what they do and be able to come up with the motivation to press on when they need to. The foundational thoughts written in this book have helped many business and market related kings come to terms with how God perceives them and what purposes He has for them. Many have drawn hope and inspiration from being associated and it is my prayer that many more will as well. I pray that God will use them to create in you the motivation to be the best Business Kin your potential suggests.
